NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

AT

Creech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a large fall of

Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Goods.

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 35 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 5 cents a per yard; wont you look at them at 10 cents? and can you afford to buy them at 12½c.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed along
The listning winds received the song.

COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? I am speaking. Cant find them? Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them. 5, 7, 8, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25, and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better, and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands, and I hope, by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage

This Manure is made of Raw or Unburned Bones, rich in Nitrogenous matter, dissolved in Oil of Vitriol, and mixed with the Potash Compounds in a highly soluble acid form by which the Ammonia in each preparation is made to insure a prompt and vigorous action upon the crops.

Where Baugh's Phosphate was applied the past season on Cotton, the indications, without exception, are that it will maintain its well earned reputation. It will prevent Rust on Cotton.

Every Conservative should go to the polls on SATURDAY 26th inst., and vote for John Manning, Jr., for Congress and Dr. Dunn for the House of Representatives from Wake.

TO THE POLLS!

Let every Conservative of Wake and of the fourth congressional district, make it a point to be at the polls early on Saturday, and vote for Dr. Dunn for the House of Representatives, and for John Manning, Jr., for Congress.

Let every man who would put his seal of condemnation upon the lawless military outrages of last summer, perpetrated by Gov. Holden, and sanctioned by his son Joe and Mr. Phillips, go to the polls and vote for Dr. Dunn and Mr. Manning.

Let every man who disapproves the reckless and extravagant course of the Radical party in this State, go to the polls on Saturday and vote for the Conservative candidates.

Let every man who has suffered from the heavy taxes that the Radicals have placed upon him, go to the polls and vote against the men who placed these taxes on him.

Go to the polls—urge your neighbors to go—nothing but neglect can beat us. Let us so work on Saturday as not to have cause to reproach ourselves afterwards.

THE LEE-MEMORIAL OBSERVANCE!

IMPRESSIVE DEMONSTRATION!

THE CAPITAL OF NORTH CAROLINA IN MOURNING!

Wednesday last, the 23rd day of November, was a memorable day in the history of Raleigh, and will long be remembered by all who participated in its exercises. A previous meeting of our citizens had designated that day as one of public mourning for the death of the Christian Hero and Patriot, GENERAL ROBERT EDWARD LEE, and a Committee of arrangements were appointed, who made the most successful and satisfactory preparations for its impressive observance. Their suggestions were heartily seconded by the community at large, and the result was a grand demonstration of popular sorrow and affectionate reverence, worthy of the State, the occasion and the Illustrious Dead. So late a day was specially selected, in order that the Legislature of the State might show, in an appropriate shape, that the heart of North Carolina was touched with uncommon grief at the great loss that the country,—aye, that humanity,—has sustained. Decorously and promptly did the Legislature, with few dissenting voices, respond to the invitation, and they will receive, therefor, the thanks of our whole people.

APPEARANCE OF THE CITY.

By 10 o'clock in the morning, Fayetteville Street, which was to constitute the route of the Procession, presented a most impressive appearance,—picturesquely, but truthfully, emblematic of the great sorrow. All of the stores, the Banks, the Insurance offices, and the Express Office, were draped with the habiliments of mourning, and business was universally suspended. The whole population of the city, swollen by accessions from the immediate country and from neighboring counties, was out of doors, evincing the liveliest and most expressive interest in the solemnities of the day. Most of the dwellings, also, on Fayetteville Street, displayed symbols of mourning, in the shape of gracefully-arranged drapery, numerous portraits of the loved Hero surrounded with funereal emblems, and in various other fit and touching ways.—Some of these displays were of rare appropriateness and elegance, but it is, perhaps, invidious to discriminate, where all exhibited so generous, impulsive and gratifying a disposition to honor him, who reflected such glory on us. Hillsboro' Street, also, although not embraced in the line of procession, bore evidences of the common grief,—many of the residences being profusely decorated with suitable insignia and devices. The office of the North Carolina Land Agency, under the direction of R. Kingsland, Esq., was draped with peculiar elaborateness and presented a very imposing aspect. The flag on the Capitol (by special resolution of the Legislature) and that on Tucker Hall were displayed at half mast during the day. The tout ensemble was one of exceeding impressiveness and effect.

THE PROCESSION.

The Procession was formed, at 11½ o'clock, in front of the Executive Mansion, at the foot of Fayetteville Street, under the efficient direction of Gen. W. R. Cox, Chief Marshal, and Majors Tucker and Manly, Capt. W. Hal. Harrison and W. C. Stronach, Esq., Assistants. Amid the solemn tolling of all the bells of the city, and preceded by the Band playing dirge and funeral march, it moved in the following order to the South gate of the Capitol, and thence to Tucker Hall, where the exercises were to take place:

Children of the Sunday Schools,
City Fire Companies,
Members of W. G. Hill Lodge, A. Y. M.,
Clergy of the City,
Soldiers of the late C. S. A.
Citizens,
Ladies,
Eulogist, Chaplain and Committee of Arrangements, in carriages.

The Fire Companies—a gallant body of men,—were in full uniform and looked unusually well. "W. G. Hill" Lodge is entitled to all commendation for its prompt co-operation in the general tribute. Quite a large number of "ex-Rebs," who had followed their idolized Leader on many a weary march and into many a tempest of battle and of blood, were in line, and formed no unimportant feature of the occasion.

Arriving near the Hall, where the procession was joined by the Senate and House of Representatives, preceded by their presiding officers, the whole entered in reversed order.

APPEARANCE OF THE HALL.

Under the sympathizing and ever-ready auspices of a portion of the ladies of the Memorial Association, the Hall was most tastefully and beautifully decorated with black and white drapery in every part, and with evergreens. From the ceiling above the rostrum was suspended a fine portrait of Gen. Lee. In front of the Speaker's table were displayed a pure white cross of chrysanthemums, with elegant white japonica in the centre,—the gift, for the occasion, of Capt. C. B. Denson, of Pittsboro',—and a laurel and ivy shield, with "Lee" thereon in white, (the handiwork of a patriotic lady of the city.)

The Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and there were hundreds outside who were unable to gain admittance. We have never seen a more imposing audience. It was a representative exhibition of Southern manhood, mind, beauty and youth.

Among those on the stage, we observed the Clergy of the city, the Lieut. Governor of the State, Capt. T. J. Jarvis, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Gens. Hoke, M. W. Ransom and Clingman, the Lady President and Treasurer of the Memorial Association, and many others.

The exercises were carried out according to the programme heretofore published. After a dirge by the Band, the grand old Hymn, Gen. Lee's favorite, "How firm a foundation," was sung, with solemn effect, by the Choir, which, under the direction of Capt. B. W. Justice, had been improvised for the occasion. This was followed by an impressive prayer, from the venerable Chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Lacy, and the reading, by Maj. Seaton Gales, of the following beautiful Memorial Poem, written for the occasion, by that noble and gifted lady, Mrs. Fanny Downing. The reading of this Poem produced a profound impression upon the immense auditory:

TO THE MEMORY OF
GENERAL ROBERT E. LEE.

BY FANNY DOWNING.

GONE TO GOD!

Gone to the God who lent him, but to show
To what a height humanity may grow,
Then from the grandest glory, earth has given,
Removed him to his vacant place in heaven!
Would He had lent him longer! Oh! the grief,
The keen, quick anguish, hopeless of relief,
That thrills the Nation as a single soul,
And racks it with emotion past control,
As it takes home the message, desolate and dread,
Of this short sentence: GENERAL LEE IS DEAD!
We thought the South knew sorrow's limit; now we know
The deepest depth within the deepest depth of woe!
Can it be well to grieve
Thus greatly? It can but be well!
Yet let us leave
Our sorrow for a season and recall
Our dead among us; let the spell
Of our grand Past come o'er us, and go back
Beneath the wizard mem'ry's magic thrall,
To those departed days along whose track
Our Sun of glory shone with dazzling ray,
That gilded and will ever gild the GREY!
Let our Confederate days come back again,
With all their pleasure, all their pride; their pain
Which was not pain, for, held by our high Hope,
We ne'er shall know such other in life's gamut—
Suffering became transmuted into something grand,
And we rejoiced to suffer for the Southern land!
Oh! days of high heroic daring, at whose breath
We laughed at danger and we greeted death
For Cause and Country, as a priceless prize,
And died for Dixie with exultant eyes!
When bosoms bounded to one mighty thought!
When beings were to superhuman strength upwrought!
One heart, one mind, one soul, one spirit burned,
And to one glorious purpose truly turned!—
Hearts, hopes, salvation, freedom, hung on One—
He sleeps beneath the turf of Lexington!

* * * * * *

That man may God's own likeness be
And bear the impress of His hand,
Our hearts can fully understand
And find the proof in ROBERT LEE!

Bear witness, ye who stood beside
Your glorious General, like a rock
Enclosed in ocean's surging shock,
And deemed the battle's crimson tide,
As welcome as the dew that drops
Upon the bosom of the rose,
At summer evening's soften'd close,
To win one word from his grand lips!

LEE'S SOLDIERS! You who loved him so,
That for his honor and the South,
You rushed upon destruction's mouth,
Just as "MARS BOBBIT" bade you go!

Speak, Southern women, we who gave
Our best, our beautiful, our brave
Our heart's whole treasures to his nod,
As freely as we give to God!

Heavens! how we loved him! It may be,
If we had loved him somewhat less,
And God the more, that we might see
Him still among us; still might bless
His living presence; still be led
By his example; strive to tread
The path his footsteps trod, and still
Be swayed by his life-acted will!
How much we love him! Who can guess
The sum of good and noblenes,
He gave us, who unconscious stood
The grand embodiment of Good!
His REIGN READ YET SPEAKETH. Let each word,
Which in its pure and simple grandeur stirred
Our very souls within us, still abide
Deep in our mem'ries, safeguard, beacon, guide,
To form the future which we still can claim,
And wreathe fresh laurels round his deathless fame!
We meet to-day to praise him; praise seems dim,
Faint, feeble, futile, which we offer him!
Like children crying for a father's loss,
We bend bewildered with our crushing cross.
The world will praise him; we can only tell
How much we loved and love him, and how well.
He sleeps as sleep the well-beloved of God,
His honored ashes resting 'neath the sod
Which covers him who loved him, his great Chief,
Whose going made the South's first bitter grief.
"Stony Jack" and "Bravo" together. Were it best
The mighty two should wait, on Richmond's crest,
The Archangel's tramp and summons, which shall be
For STONEWALL JACKSON and for ROBERT LEE,
Not even in death divided? It rocks not
What space of Southern soil shall be the spot
Selected to enshrine and hold in trust,
The mortal portion of his precious dust;
For, buried deep, his grand immortal part
Finds its true grave in every Southern heart!

Then, after a handsome introduction by Gen. W. R. Cox, the Chief Marshal, succeeded,

THE GREAT ORATION OF GOV. VANCE.

It was fit that Zebulon B. Vance should deliver the memorial tribute to Robert E. Lee. The representative North Carolinian speaking of the great representative Southron! The patriotic Executive, who held up the arms of the mighty Captain with all the resources, moral and material, of this noble Commonwealth, uttering the voice of eulogy and lamentation of the State! Never was there a grander theme, and rarely has there one so grand been so grandly handled. The eloquent orator's whole soul was in his subject, and not more than an hour he enchained the attention and the admiration of that sympathizing and gratified assemblage.

We despair of attempting an analysis of this splendid production, and we express the universal desire that it shall be published, to be read by the whole country. In its just, appreciative and discriminating estimate of Gen. Lee's character, as man and soldier,—in the utterance of great philosophical truths in nervous, bold and original language,—in its vindication of Southern prowess,—in its presentation of the salient attributes that make up the glorious combination of good and great, which signalized the life of our Model Man—in the apposite adaptation of the teachings of the past, derived from copious reading, to the lessons of the present,—the oration was all that could have been desired, and, as such, has enhanced the high reputation of Gov. Vance. Equal to any emergency, he was more than equal to this.

After another dirge by the Band, the singing of a fine anthem by the choir and a portion of the children of the Sunday Schools, and the benediction by Dr. Lacy, the vast audience quietly dispersed.

Pending the exercises, a contribution, agreeably to previous announcement, was taken up for the Memorial Monument, to be erected in our Confederate Cemetery, by which a handsome sum was realized.

Thus ended this great demonstration.—We repeat that it was one which reflected credit upon the community and the State. It proved that near to the hearts of our people are the reputation and the memory of those who have illustrated our annals and adorned our humanity. It proved that no malice, detraction, compulsion, or oppression can obliterate the recollection of great deeds done in the path of Duty. It proved that sacred and dear is the memory of Robert E. Lee, the second Washington, and that there yet remains, after all the demoralizing tendencies of the age, a deep veneration for that Virtue, public and private, which filled up the measure of his great life! And our children and our children's children

"Shall revive his name, and in fond memories,
Preserve and still keep fresh, like flowers in water,
His glorious deeds!"

THE PENITENTIARY.

The Governor, in his message, says there are two hundred and twenty convicts in the Penitentiary, and that there are two hundred more in the county prisons, who should be in the Penitentiary. Yes, indeed, and there are men who sit in the Capitol, who ought to be sitting, or breaking rock, in the Penitentiary.

The message says, the affairs of the Penitentiary have, in all respects, been economically, honestly and ably managed by the Commissioners. We shall raise no question, now, on that subject, but we cannot refrain from mentioning the fact, that the Penitentiary Board is the only one that has been vigorously and specially attacked by the Governor's organ, the Standard, and their removal urged as a party necessity.

But why did not the Governor say the same in regard to the management of the railroads? Or if he could not summon the courage, in the face of facts, to say so much for them, why did he not come out honestly and squarely, and say they had been badly, fraudulently, and extravagantly managed? This much was due from the Governor, not only to the Legislature and the people, but to truth, even if thereby he had been obliged to expose his boom friends.

The Governor also forgot to mention while on the Penitentiary subject, that there are $100,000 of State bonds out now, somewhere, for the Penitentiary location on Deep River, located by James Harris, Robert Lassiter and others. But perhaps his Excellency looks upon this hundred thousand dollar swindle as a small affair, compared with the larger swindles with which he has been so familiar, and, consequently, not worth mentioning.

LEASING THE UNIVERSITY.

The Governor, during the last session of the Legislature, had a passion or fever for leasing Railroads; that passion has worn off and he is now opposed to leasing out the Railroads, but wants to lease out the University. We suppose the next thing will be a proposition to sell the Professorships, or probably, the Professors themselves. Pilgrim Ashley would probably buy Marthe; John Pool would buy brother Sol., Judge Settle bid off cousin John Patrick, and Littlefield take the residue in a lot to be paid for in State bonds.

But, perhaps, in leasing out the University, the Governor would throw the Professors in; there would be a difficulty, however, we fear, in finding a lessee, even with that collateral advantage. We suggest to the Governor to correspond with the Swamp Land Company, maybe they would take the University, too, if terms were made accommodating.

FRAUDS ON SOUTHERN STATE BONDS—MISAPPLICATION OF STATE FUNDS—CARPET BAGGERS' THEFTS—CO-OPERATION THEREIN BY NEW YORK BANKERS—POSSIBLE REPUDIATION.

WOODHULL & CLAFLIN'S WEEKLY, is the name of a sixteen-page weekly paper, published in New York by Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull and Mrs. Tennie C. Claflin, as advocate of progress in a great many things that we don't understand, and, therefore, neither believe nor disbelieve in. We do not use the term in its usual opprobrious sense, in saying, the editresses are "strong minded" women. However well founded their views may be in regard to the grand reforms they advocate, they certainly possess very correct information and entertain very sound views on the current economy, education, politics and finances of the country, and they have a way of expressing their views in language and force of style that will, at once, command attention and consideration.

We copy the article below from their issue of this week; its truth and force will strike every reader at all familiar with the progress of "reconstruction," and the management of public affairs in the South, for the last four years:

In our issue of 12th November, under the above heading, we stated our intention to expose the frauds of the carpet baggers and their co operators North, in swindlings and robberies perpetrated by them in the States of North and South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana. Information received since then may cause us to include also the State of Georgia. In each and all of which States, under the plea of State improvement, or any plea which could cover rascality, the bonds of the States have been issued to favorites or bribers of the Governors and Legislative bodies.

A press of other matter which we deemed important prevented these exposures from appearing in their due order in the following issues of our paper. In the interval a voluntary contributor in South Carolina, of high social position, under the nom de plume of "Palmetto," sends us information which we shall, as it comes forward, publish in its original form, that our readers may know the exact feelings which govern the honest portion of that State.—These letters will take the place of our own remarks upon South Carolina.

We, therefore, now desire to call the attention of men of integrity, not only here but in the South—and more particularly request it specially from the genuine, not the bogus, bankers of this city—and bankers of Great Britain and the Continent, to what we shall say of North Carolina, that they may in advance of events now foreshadowed, form a correct judgment of their cause.

If this attention is so far given that the facts will be clearly comprehended, dishonesty will not be imputed to a whole people because a few unprincipled villains—scoundrels by nature, education and habit—had obtained control of the Legislature and Executive authority of the State and used it to such fraudulent ends as may excite the people in the first outburst of their indignation to repudiate the certificates of State indebtedness which have been almost literally stolen from the State Treasury.

No people South of Mason and Dixon's line, previous to the rebellion, kept purer faith, or held higher position for integrity than did those of the "OLD NORTH," as these people of North Carolina delighted to designate their parent soil. And of the native born, no people to-day deserve to stand higher in all that relates to social qualities or honest business relations than those of that State. It is their very integrity of purpose which may precipitate them into repudiation.

They think that even handed justice requires it to punish the thieving set who sneakingly crept into position or office, and bribed a Legislature—as diverse in principle as it was in color, as corrupt as political bodies must always be when elected from the scum which comes to the surface in the effervescence of a civil war—to rob the State of its credit by the issue of its bonds to an amount so large as to bankrupt it, if these bonds are not restrained in the hands where they are now held, and scaled to the exact value at which they were issued upon or purchased, attaching also probably the condition that the three principal villains—who are now dodging from justice at the South by taking refuge in Jersey City, or preparing for more permanent refuge in Europe—shall be placed under arrest before departure, or brought back under a certain clause of the treaties between the United States and Great Britain and some other of the European Governments, which provides for giving up criminals. They believe that criminality can be proved, not only upon these three parties, but upon two or more banking concerns—so called—which, growing up in this city during or since the war, have been prominent in these transactions; one of which, at least, was represented by one of its partners in Raleigh, and largely aided in corrupting the Legislature.

Our space does not permit us to-day to enter into the details, but in our next issue we shall give more of the facts—the amounts of the robberies, so far as brought to light, the names of the carpet-baggers, and of the parties in this city whom the people of Carolina charge as being mainly instrumental in bringing about this condition of disaster to their State, by prompting and encouraging the carpet-baggers to their acts, by aiding them with loans of money upon the fraudulent issues, and by subsequently depressing the prices of these issues of State bonds that they might get possession of them at a rate so low that it would vastly enrich them if they could by any known, or as yet unknown, process of inflating the stock market, force them off at an advance upon the people of this city, or upon the London or other European financial centres.

For the Sentinel.

MOORE Co. N. C. Nov. 21st, 1870.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.—DEAR SIR:—Last Saturday we started another Kelly to Raleigh as a representative, but not the Kelly who went two years ago—no not Radical Kelly—Blacksmith K.—Wheelwright K.—Laughing Jacob—or Abraham, but a good old Democrat, who, in short, signs his name "A. Kelly," but then it ain't Abel Kelly. Yours truly,

SHOO FLY.

A YOUNG MAN, becoming engaged recently, was desirous of presenting his intended with a ring, appropriately inscribed; but being at a loss what to have engraved on it, called upon his father for advice. "Well," said the old man, "put on 'When this you see remember me.' The young lady was much surprised a few days after at receiving a beautiful ring, with this inscription: "When this you see remember father."

The Cincinnati Commercial has expressed a determination not to train in the "Grant and second-term company." The Chicago Tribune is on the same platform. Almost all the leading Radical papers in the West have run down the Grant flag.—Philadelphia Age.

SOMETIME since an announcement extraordinary was made by the SENTINEL, mais, that he knew of twelve orders having been given our Milliners in one day for Bridal Bonnets, and expressed some surprise at the number &c.

Our friend Moore was not in the secret. I propose now to tell him and every body else, that it was not surprising at all.

Every one of these happy Bridegrooms were patrons of Pink C. Hardie, and purchased their Cigars and Tobacco of him, which imparted a fragrance to the breath which was perfectly irresistable. Sozodont is no where.

Every body knows what a horrible scent is imparted by a horrible Cigar or Chew, "such as I dont keep" and no one discovers it sooner than the ladies.

Now a word to all who contemplate matrimony. Be-wise in time and give no occasion for your rejection by purchasing your Cigars and Tobacco from

PINK C. HARDIE.

To the members of the Legislature, strangers and citizens I would say, that my stock of Cigars, Tobacco and Smokers goods generally is complete. Come and see me, and I will guarantee I will suit you in quality and price.

I deal in nothing but Tobacconists goods. Cigars from three cents to fifty cents.

STATE COUNCIL, F. OF T.—On Monday night last, a Committee, consisting of Rev. R. H. Whitaker, Theo. N. Ramsay and D. W. Whitaker were appointed as Committee of arrangements for the meeting of the State Council. This Committee will call upon the citizens to solicit their hospitalities for those who may attend.

We hope our citizens will respond and give the workers in this cause a good reception. The Council meets on Wednesday night next, at Temperance Hall, on corner of Market and Fayetteville streets.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.—We learn that two of our enterprising citizens whose names are not yet announced in the bills, purchased Thayer's Circus—horses, tent and other paraphernalia—which were sold at auction on Wednesday, at High Point, and intend, as soon as the horses and trick mules are sufficiently recuperated, to start out on a tour of exhibition throughout the South.

Many suggestions, wise and otherwise, have been made, in regard to the cause of Thayer's failure. We shouldn't be surprised, if the truth were known, that our hundred-and-sixty-lines Local notice, at one free ticket for every five lines, had something to do with it. He survived the infliction only a few days. We therefore advise the new proprietors against that sort of arrangement with the Press on which Thayer split.

IMPORTED DUTCH BULBOUS ROOTS.—Messrs. Pescud, Lee & Co., Druggists, have received, direct from Holland, a large stock of bulbous roots—Hyacinth, Crocus, Tulip and Narcissus—which they offer low to those who have the taste and energy to cultivate these beautiful flowers.

TITHES FOUND.—We have had left at this office, by the finders thereof, a bunch of keys, and a lady's handkerchief with black border, both picked up on the street, on Wednesday. The owners can have them by describing them.

TO LIFE INSURANCE AGENTS.—One of the soundest and best established Life Companies, in this country, with a good list of policies in force in this State desire a man of high character to act as Gen'l Agent. He will be required to travel most of the time, must be a good solicitor and fond of the work. The position offers good pay and prospects of permanent employment.

A. SHORTER CALDWELL,
nov 23-cod6t Charlotte, N. C.

A WATER HAUL.—We noticed sometime since that one Wm. P. Grimsley was trying to indict Bonitz of the Goldsboro' Messenger, for slander, in calling him "an irresponsible drunken radical." The bill, occupying some five or six sheets of fool's-cap, was sent before the grand jury of Lenoir county, and was, after examination of the witnesses, returned ignored. This we suppose is equivalent to a decision of the grand jury of Lenoir that Grimsley is a sort of "an irresponsible drunken radical."

NEWSPAPER IMPROVEMENT.—The Raleigh "Episcopal Methodist," that was, comes to us this week under a new title—"The Christian Advocate," considerably enlarged and beautifully printed; in short, showing a decided improvement in every particular. As to the news, we say, it is decidedly better now than before. Half the people that spoke of it, used the present name even when it had that of "Episcopal Methodist" at his head. 'Christian Advocate" is much more familiar and more appropriate.

The enlargement and other improvements in the paper, are evidences of success which must call forth the congratulations of every friend to the enterprise. They are also suggestive of the necessity for the friends of the paper to give it earnest and increased material and moral support.

COUGHS AND COLDS ARE OFTEN OVERLOOKED.—A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs, or some chronic Throat Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy, giving almost invariably sure and immediate relief.

Owing to the good reputation and popularity of the Troches, many worthless and cheap imitations are offered, which are good for nothing. Be sure to OBTAIN the true "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Sold everywhere.

nov. 25, eod1w.

Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo N. Y., and get a pamphlet on Catarrh free, or send sixty cents and get Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. $500 reward is offered by the proprietor for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists.

"SPALDING'S GLUE," useful in every house.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—A general order for Sozodont. In the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme dentrifice of the age.

No impurity can infest the teeth cleaned daily with Sozodont. Quillay, the bark of the Chilian Soap Tree, an article which possesses cleansing properties superior to those of any other known substance, is one of the ingredients of this peerless compound. Sozodont is the only dentrifice in existence in which this salutorious botanical product is incorporated.

THE BLOOD-THIRSTY JOSEPH.

Once upon a time, Governor Holden was appointed Provisional Governor of North Carolina. That was during the process of our first reconstruction. When the job was thought to be tolerably well completed, Gov. Holden became a candidate before the people for the position he only held provisionally, and got beaten, as will be remembered, by that good old man, Jona than Worth.

In those days "my son Joe" was one of the editors of the Standard, and seeing the way things were going against "Dad," he waxed wroth, and said many bitter things against those whom he considered as the cause of the "bad turn" things were taking. Among other things he one day penned a very bitter editorial against "Dads" opponents, in which the extract below occurs. But the old man happened to see it before it got into the paper and ordered its suppression.

That such a rich piece of literature might not be lost to posterity, somebody cut out the paragraph below, and preserved it, and it now lies before us. We publish it that all the world may see what were Joe's ideas of conciliation and amnesty, were in those days.

Here's what Joe said:

"More treason exists in North Carolina to-day than six months ago. Who are the traitors? Jo. Turner, Wm. A. Graham, R. Y. McAden, Jno. T. Wooten, Wm. E. Pell, and the editors of miserable little local sheets. We, the Junior, are responsible for what we say. The spirit of D. K. McRae still lives, and by the eternal power it must be scourged into submission.

We hate with the hate of hell, the political hypocrites who have been before the people. Jo. Turner is as mean a man, as low an American as the broad boundaries of the counties West. He has been agged on by others. By all that is good let him be arrested and let this matter be ferreted to the bottom. Let the whole thing be exposed. Oh, for one hour as Provisional Governor. These scoundrels should be flayed alive.

Gov. Holden has been too lenient. As a father we have known him as such. But now may he put into letters of blood the damnable history of these mean, despicable traitors. For God's sake, let us have utter harmony or the peace of utter subjugation. The Union men of North Carolina are the true lords of the soil, let them rule or let them shed oceans of blood. To arms! Stand by the Governor. Implore him to kill, burn and destroy every secessionist that now lives. Amen."

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Yesterday was pretty generally observed in this city as thanksgiving day, but whether there was any extraordinary offering of thanks, we have no means of knowing. Public services were held in the Episcopal and Presbyterian Churches. We are not aware that any of the other churches were opened.

We presume there was a general observance of good dinners. We received five notifications that our services were needed in disposing of roast turkey and oysters, with the et ceteras, but found it impossible to comply with all of them owing to the fact the dinner hour arrives about the same time all over the city. We felt very thankful, however, and we hope our readers did, also, and were generally happy.

THE STORY OF A MISSING MEDAL.—WASHINGTON, November 21.—On the 2d of March, 1867, Congress appropriated $5,000 for a gold medal, to be presented to Cyrus W. Field upon the completion of the Atlantic cable. The medal was made of solid gold, weighing some three or four pounds, elaborately carved and mounted, and enclosed in a pearl case mounted with gold. Secretary McCulloch, who was the Secretary of the Treasury, received the medal from the mint and sent it to President Johnson by his confidential secretary. The medal was missed shortly after this, and upon inquiry being made, Mr. Johnson stated that he had returned it to the Treasury Department. Nothing could be heard of it at the department and it was finally believed that the medal had been stolen. Congress therefore made another appropriation of $5,000 for a duplicate which was made and presented to Mr. Field about two years ago. It now turns out that the original medal was returned to the Treasury Department by President Johnson after he had viewed it, and the messenger gave it to Assistant Treasurer Tuttle, who locked it up in his private safe, and never heard the charge that it had been stolen or that an appropriation had been made for a new one. The medal remained in his safe until Saturday last, when Mr. Tuttle inquired of General Spinner why Mr. Field did not come for his medal. General Spinner was greatly astonished, of course, at hearing all the facts in the case, and will retain the medal until some disposition of it will be made by Congress.

A DOG STORY.—Christopher Ludi, of Muscatine, Iowa, has a wonderful dog. Ludi is a baker, and his dog is his policeman. He missed money from his drawer. He threatened to blow his dog's head off for letting him be robbed. Thereupon the dog pulled him, led him to a mouse nest in the corner, where Ludi found his green backs. He says he "no take $1,000 for dat dog."

GRANT is going about Pennsylvania to save radicalism. For the same purpose is Butler going to war with England. The Chicago Tribune is going for free trade, the New York Tribune is going for protection, and radicalism itself is going—to the devil. Going, going, almost gone.—Chicago Times.

A National Medicine.

One can hardly pick up a newspaper or turn a street corner now-a-days that he does not find, staring him in the face, the announcement that Prof. So-and-so has just discovered a medicine which is a panacea for all the ills that flesh is, or may be heir to. These "wonderful" discoveries usually have an existence of a few months, then disappear from public notice. The reason of their sudden extinguishment is apparent. They were humbugs. At the outset all medical preparations have an equal chance for success, as all are equally unknown; but the chaff is soon winnowed from the grain by the practical test which an unprejudiced public applies to all things. There are but few preparations which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any length of time. One of the few which we have now in mind, and which has been a long time familiar to nearly every household in the land, is the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their almost universal sale and use, and their emphatic endorsement from all portions of the country, compel the admission that they must be a specific for the ailments for which they are recommended. Letters before us attest their efficacy in diseases of the throat, bowels and liver. In that truly terrible complaint, dyspepsia, where these Bitters are manufactured, their sale for home use is immense. This fact alone speaks volumes in their favor.—Extracts from the Muscatine Courier (Iowa,) Feb. 7, 1867.

EXAMPLE, BETTER THAN PRECEPT, AND TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

THE subscriber has been interrogated within the last few days by a very considerable number of persons in reference to the fact as to whether our lately departed fellow citizen, the Rev. Wm. E. Pell was or was not insured in the Ætna Company. And now my reply is given in this public way for the information of all those who may feel a true and personal interest in the temporal comfort and prosperity of those he so nobly and faithfully represented while living. He was one among many of the first who took policies in this Company in 1866. His example in Church and State are worthy of the highest Commendation and emulation by every one. He sought first his personal salvation, and then used all legitimate means to provide for those he loved best. He insured in the Ætna Company for $10,000 about the time that Gov. Worth took $5,000, R. Andrews $10 000, J. A. Moore $15,000, A. Kline 5,000, and many others who might be named. "He who provides not for his own and especially for those of his own house will find what he is compared to in Holy writ, a word to the wise is sufficient, and in conclusion we say be advised while in health to follow the example of our friend. And if the Ætna Company after having paid already $182,000 to the widows and orphans of the State is not approved of and worthy of your confidence, we will say insure in the next best you can find.

A Republican insurrection is momentarily expected at Madrid. The Captain General of Aragon, telegraphs Prim that a revolution will occur if reinforcements are not sent. A public meeting is proposed here to express regret at the abandonment by the Germans of a defensive for an aggressive policy.

VERSAILLES, Nov. 24.—No news of importance from Paris. The Duke of Mecklenburg is rapidly advancing.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 24.—Gortschakoff's reply to the British and Austrian governments is very conciliatory. It explained the pacific meaning of the previous declarations and affirms that Russia craves peace generally, and in the East especially.

DR. A. TOUAG'S
Bronchial Syrup.

This BRONCHIAL SYRUP is a safe and certain remedy for SCROFULA in many of its varying forms. Its effects are speedy and permanent. It cures rapidly Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption in its early stages, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, &c.

This preparation is perfectly harmless, never producing any unpleasant symptoms, or the slightest injury to the tone of the most delicate stomach. Its results are Tonic and Invigorating, giving a good and healthy appetite. It is compounded of fresh and unadulterated materials which, from their combination, exercise an alterative influence over the entire system. This Medicine is alike efficacious upon the Air Passages, curing Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, and Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and also upon the Alimentary Canal, stimulating and strengthening its action, and driving out that Hydra-headed monster, Dyspepsia.

It has been tested by large numbers of persons, and has invariably given relief and satisfaction. It is also prescribed by many prominent physicians in this State.

Among those who have tested it and testified to its efficacy, we mention Rev. J. H. Daily, M. Q. Waddell, Esq., Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, Gov. Holden, Rev. W. H. Wills, Rev. T. M. Jones, A. R. Hawkins, M. D., Hon. C. E. Riddick, Bishop D. S. Doggett, Bishop G. F. Pearce, Ex-Gov. A. Rencher, Rev. Dr. Cheshire, Rev. R. H. Sutton, Hon. A. W. Venable, Bishop Davis of S. C., Rev. N. F. FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and the 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 100,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN SHORT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 500 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two-horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet 22in×28in×30in; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 12th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE

UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included in dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,031,341.0.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000,000 greater than any other company.
